Jack! Look at that lady with the stop sign.
She's a lollipop lady.

What does she do?

She helps children cross the road.

Mum! Mum! Look at those people in the big truck.

Not now. Help your sister please!

But Mum! I know what they do. They are...

Not now. Later.

Jack! Look at that man on the bike with the yellow bags. He's a postie.

What does he do?

He helps us by bringing our letters and parcels.

Mum! Mum! Look at those people with the red braces.

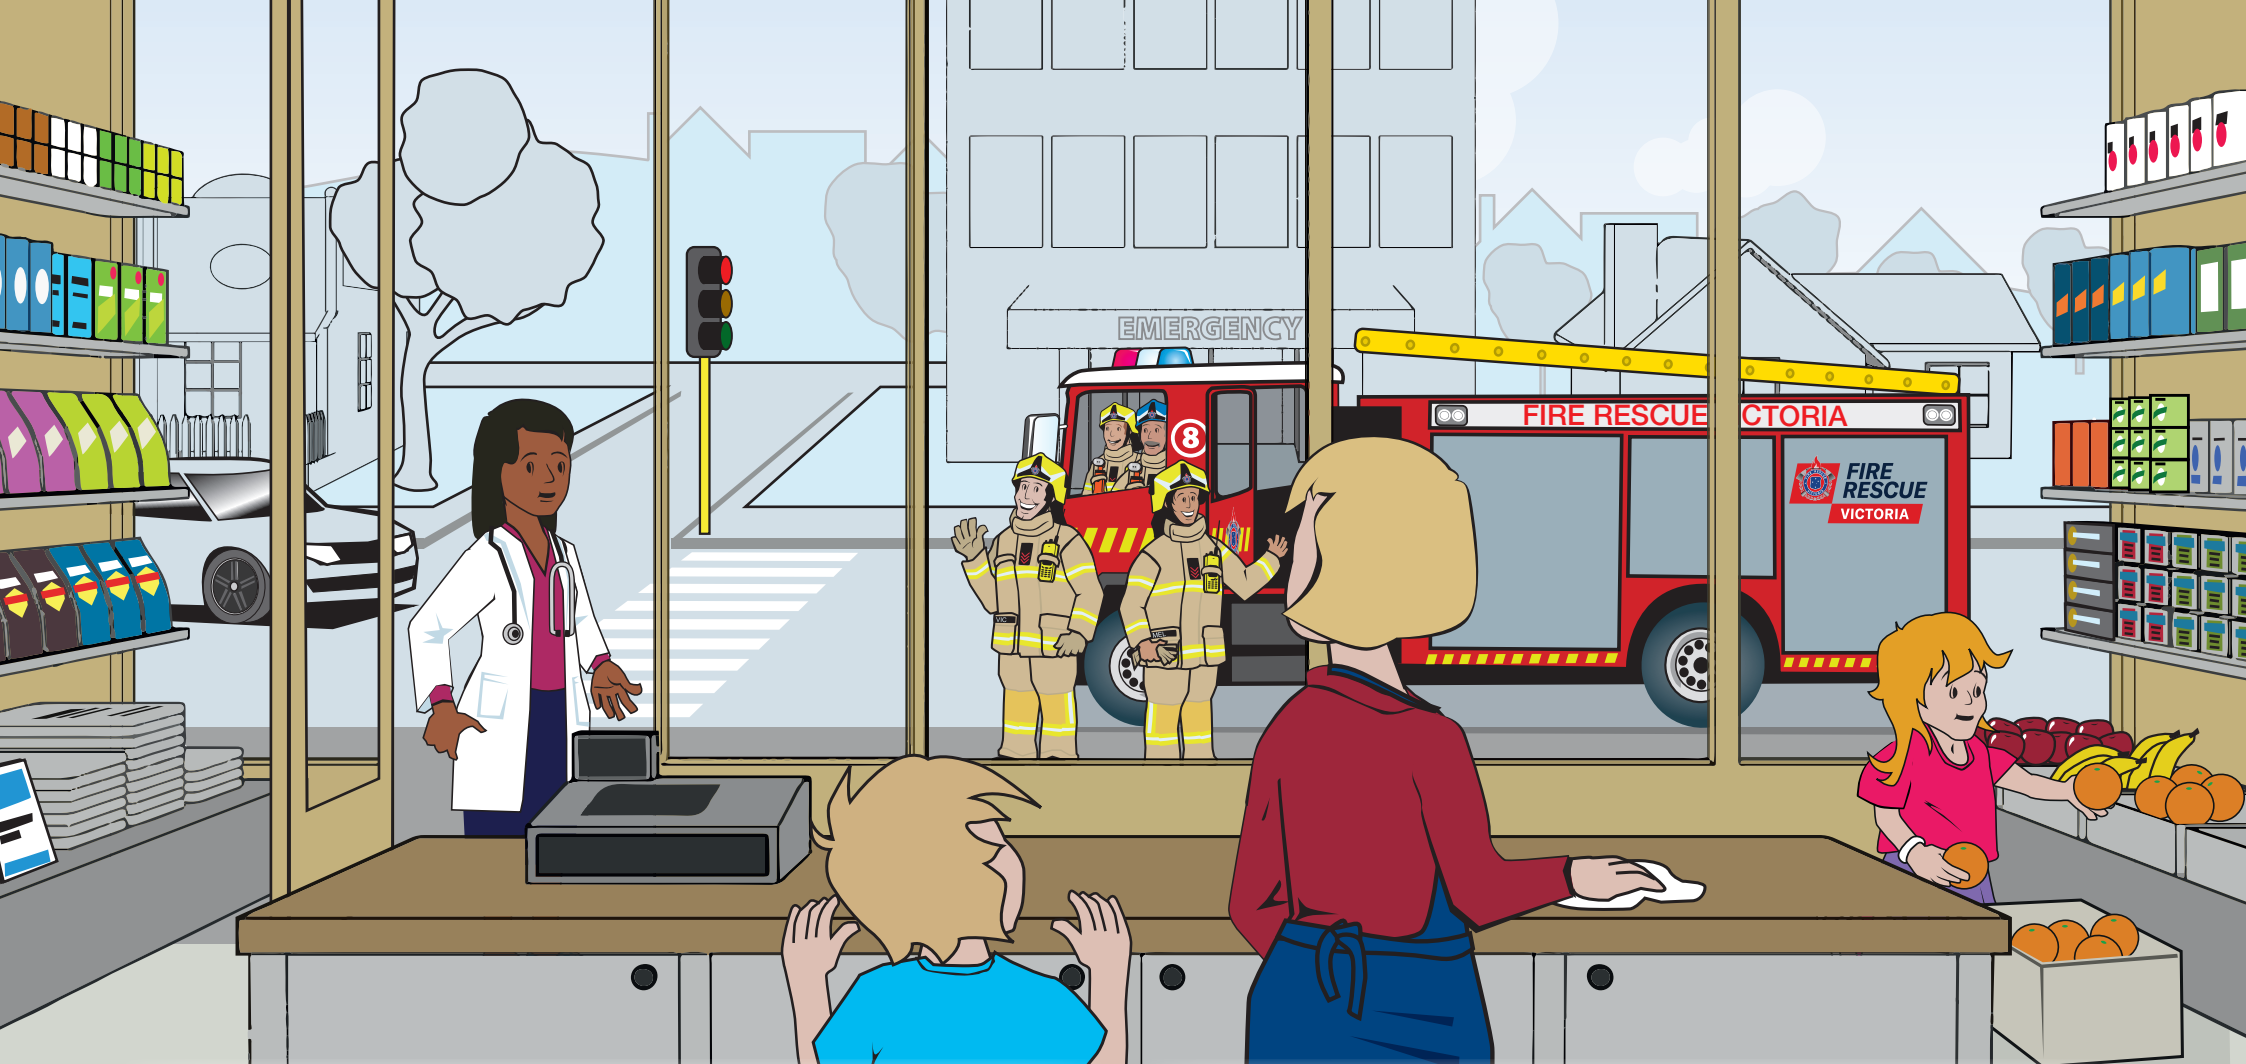

Not now. Help your sister please!

But Mum! I know what they do. They are...

Not now. Later.

Jack! Look at that lady in the white coat. She's a doctor.

What does she do?

She helps us to get better when we are sick.

Mum! Mum! Look at those people in the gold uniforms.

Not now. Help your sister please!

But Mum! I know what they do. They are...

Not now. Later.

Jack! Look at those people with the blue and white caps. They are police officers.

What do they do?

They help us by keeping us safe.

Mum! Mum! Look at those people with the long ladder.

Not now. Help your sister please!

But Mum! I know what they do. They are.

Not now. Later.

Jack! Look at those people with the strange bed. They are paramedics.

What do they do?

They help us by coming quickly if we are hurt or sick.

Mum! Mum! Look at those people with the shiny helmets.

Not now. Help your sister please!

But Mum! I know what they do. They are...

Not now. Later.

Jack! Look at those people in the orange overalls. They are SES volunteers.

What do they do?

They help us in an emergency.

Mum! Mum! Look at those people with the heavy hose.

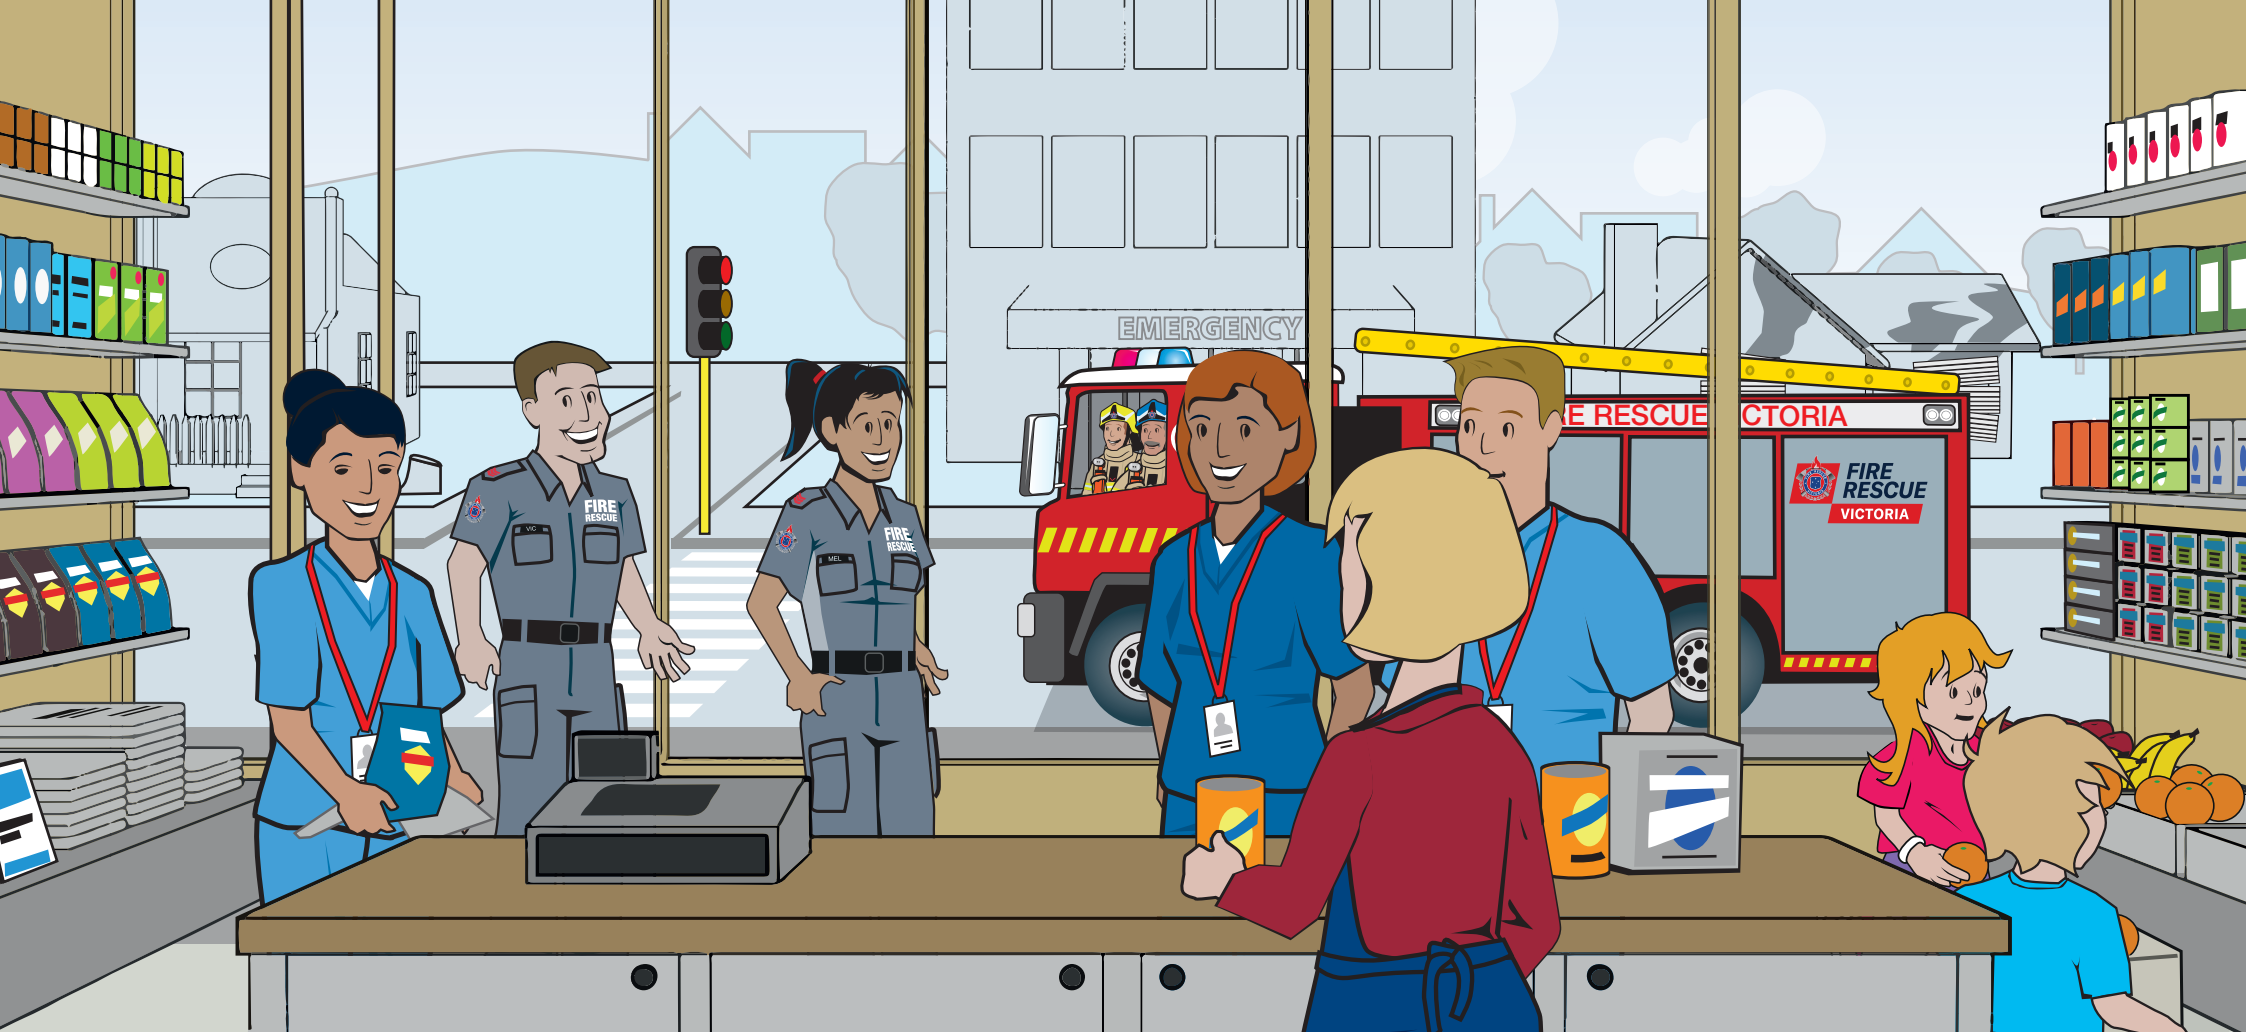

Not now. Help your sister please!

But Mum! I know what they do. They are...

Not now. Later.

Dash! Look at those people in blue.
They are nurses.

What do they do?

They help look after us when we are in hospital.

Jack! Jack! Look at these people coming into our shop.

Not now. I'm helping my sister!

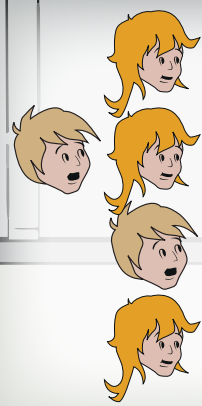

But Jack! You know what they do. They are...

Not now. Later.

 We know who these people are!
 HELLO FIREFIGHTERS!
 You came to our school.
 You are our favourite helpers.
